He gave His only Son.”

How can you give yourself to God the Father in a response to that love? Could God be calling you to live His love as a priest or in the consecrated life? If you think God may be offering you this grace, call Father Patrick Gallagher at (901) 323-3817 or write: VocationsDirector@vocations.cdom.org.

Word, Eucharist, Life

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

*John 3
Exodus 4
Deuteronomy 3 2 Corinthians 13*

Moses prayed and the God who answered took ownership of the Hebrew people In time the answer was sending the Son to save all the world's peoples Something good in the world was worth saving in the eyes of God The Creator worked and continues to work through the death and resurrection of Jesus to transform the world and us drawing forth the good that God saw in the act of creation and sees now By the grace of the Spirit we are drawn into the action of God's love in the paschal mystery reenacted in the work of the Eucharistic liturgy By the same Spirit that transforms we are given the task of searching for goodness in the world of nature and of people
This is the work of extending love to those situations shown to us by the transforming Spirit As the image of Christ in the world we carry on this mission Human words fail us in the face of God's reality Yet we are called by faith to ponder who God is by what we learn in Scripture and in what we see God doing around us all by the grace of Christ in the love of the Creator in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit

Please pray for the sick in our parish community, our friends and loved ones:

Jeanne Richardson, Linda and James Owen, Lanny Merrill, Sharon Shea, Rose Brooks, Tom Colturi, Robert Faulkner, Fred Robinson, Richard Asbury, Roger Harrison, Sharon David, Thomas Born, Peggy Cunningham, Blanche Forest, Lucinda Lee, Margaret Lynch, Kevin David

The Psalms teach us how to pray.

Retreats begin Friday evening with dinner at 6:30 and conclude with lunch on Sunday.

Suggested offering: $200 – per single occupancy or $180 per double occupancy. Register online: www.olqpretreats.com or call 731-548-2500.
