Word, Eucharist, Life

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 10
Jeremiah 20
Psalm 69
Romans 5

Do not be afraid.

Jeremiah asserts his confidence in God's ultimate protection and power over the wicked who oppose him and his message The prophet prays to see the vengeance of God in regard to his enemies This wish is not what Jesus would pray for as we hear his words from the cross God's response to the plight of Jesus is to be seen in Jesus' being raised from the dead
The One who went to his death at the hands of his enemies urges us in the gospel to place our entire confidence in God The Holy One does not always save from violence those who witness to His Name and action in the paschal mystery Yet we who are sent to live and proclaim the Good News are valued by God more than many sparrows In the resurrection of Jesus we have God's final word and work for us who follow Jesus and are sent by his Spirit to give fearless witness to God's Word and God's way in the world In the Lord's Supper we remember how God intervenes in our lives just as God intervened in the human life of Jesus who lived his mission fully The Eucharist is our thanksgiving for all that God has done and all that God is doing in us and our lives and mission as church

Farewell to Father Patrick

Thank you Father Patrick for your service to St. Patrick Parish and Congratulations and Good Luck in your future endeavors!

We will miss you!

“So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.”

God is always looking out for what's best for us. If He is calling you to be a priest, sister or brother, there is nothing to fear. Take a risk and call Father Patrick Gallagher at (901) 323-3817 or write:
