Word, Eucharist, Life

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 11 Zechariah 9 Psalm 145 Romans 8

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

The One who comes in humble manner will bring peace across the entire world
The One who comes is without violence in establishing peace
This is the meekness of which Jesus speaks In his courage that faces death and suffering he reveals the true strength

of his meek and humble ways It is up to us to discover a new meaning of being meek in the way to peace

the way that faces opposition and evil yet turns from doing personal violence

In a world of retribution and *gotcha*we follow the One who walked the path of nonviolence

When we forsake our own self-importance we can know the revelation of the One who sends Jesus to us

In the simplicity of bread and wine we bend our faith to the message and we are charged to remember that truly Jesus remains with us and desires to walk with us as we share the truth of his way of living

Please pray for the sick in our parish community, our friends and loved ones:

James Owen, Lanny Merrill, Sharon Shea, Tom Colturi, Robert Faulkner, Fred Robinson, Richard Asbury, Roger Harrison, Sharon David, Thomas Born, Peggy
