Twenty-ninth Sunday
Ordinary Time

Isaiah 53

Psalm 33

Hebrews 4

Mark 10

Did those two know what they were asking?

Did they know what cup Jesus offered?

James and John came without resumes, only with boldness, making their request for promotions.

They were to be promoted to servanthood.

The cup they were to drink is the same that Jesus accepted in following his mission.

Do we know that the cup of Communion with Jesus is taking part in his mission, in its demands to speak out,
or to take action for justice when the rest of the world sits by to watch the unfolding of militarism and racism and degradation of our environment?

Jesus directs us to seek,
not positions of importance,
but to attending to needs
that present themselves before our very eyes.

Jesus himself asked that the cup
before him would pass,
yet he yielded to the need of the world of us weak sinners.

Shall we take on the boldness of James and John
to follow Jesus the Servant
who is able to sympathize with our weakness?

Why Auto Deposit is a Very Good Thing

A. Once it is set-up, it is easier for parishioners, because you don't have to worry about writing checks, finding the offertory envelope, or carrying cash to make your contributions.

B. It is easier and more accurate for the Finance Committee to budget, because we know what funds to expect.

C. If you elect to use auto deposit and you still want to participate in the weekly offertory gift giving, offertory cards are available (located in back, with Legacy display) that you can drop in the basket along with any prayer intentions you may have for Father the following week.

There are 3 ways you can set up auto-deposit:

1. If you currently use online banking, you can set it up on your own within 5 minutes.
2. If you don't use online banking you can void a check and give it to Mike Stengel, Ro, Don Farrell or Father. Please specify the amount and frequency (weekly, monthly, and when it should start).
3. Or....you can go to our website stpatsmemphis.org and on the lower right side of the home page, click on Parish Giving, enter zip code 38126 and press Search and follow the prompts.

Any questions, please contact Julie Boland in the office julie.boland@stpat.cdom.org or 901-527-2542.

From the St. Patrick Archives

From J. M. Keating's A HISTORY OF THE YELLOW FEVER, written by Father William Walsh

When the yellow fever plague was imported here, early last August, it was not difficult to anticipate its scourging ravages. I was assistant priest at St. Patrick's Church, and honorary President of the Father Mathew Society here. It was attached to the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union and to the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America. We had a meeting of our society on the Sunday after the plague had made its appearance. Forty five members were present. Many were unaware of the great calamity which was imminent, and some were anxious, in the event of the fever becoming epidemic, to have the society organize, from among its members, a corps of nurses or others to assist the families of the members who might be stricken down, and, as far as they might be able, other afflicted families—without distinction, as I apprehended, of race, creed, or color. Knowing full well that our society did not contain the class of men who would be enabled to effectually carry out this grand idea, I suggested that the members save themselves and families by timely flight, and establish, in quarters considered safe, a camp, which might be made a source of refuge and relief. This suggestion met with an unanimous approval. I assured them that I would provide the funds and look after every interest. An unanimous resolution was then passed to leave the treasury and powers of board, in fact, all the rules of the society, in the hands of a committee of five members, with me as chair man. On the next day I issued an appeal for aid, to the societies comprising the two great National Unions to which our society was attached. I was anxious, as I wrote, 'to show to the world the great power that might be wielded by the co-operative efforts of our Unions, and to convince Catholic societies of some of the great benefits of membership in these Unions.' - It has enabled us to be a source of charity and benevolence among the needy, the dying, and the dead, irrespective of creed, race, or color, during nearly three months of a most trying ordeal—an ordeal which made our fair city a city of the dying and dead.

STEWARDSHIP

A Lasting Legacy of Faith for St. Patrick Church

We have prepared a brochure that explains everything anyone would want to know about including St Patrick in your last will and testament. All of us have benefitted from those who gave before us, going back to 1866. We have an opportunity to do the same for future generations. The brochure is located in the back of the church in an acrylic holder and will also appear on our website and through social media outlets in the near future. Anyone having questions can contact our parishioner and PPC leader Jennifer Sneed, who is also a very knowledgeable probate attorney. She is willing meet initially for free to explain options available to all.

Her contact information is included in the new brochure, or you can email her at jsneed@bhammlaw.com

Work with poor shifts view of life, death, eternity | Opinion

Dick Hackett, Guest columnist

Published 10:58 a.m. CT Oct. 12, 2018

Many years ago in my 20's, I had the opportunity to visit the Shelby County Cemetery, also known as Potters Field. It was a final resting place for the poor, homeless and a number of unidentified persons, including babies who died at birth. As I stopped at one particular burial site, I wondered whether the deceased had family or friends. The grave could have been that of a man, woman or child. I guess no one knew, as there was no name or grave marker. There was probably just a burial, not a funeral -- no words spoken about the "good times," the happy or joyous times, spending holidays and good meals with family or friends, a favorite trip or favorite dessert or season of the year.

Some might say "this person had not a soul in the world." That's not true. God gives each of us a soul. I believe having souls gives us a kinship.

Afterward, as I tried to research that particular grave site, I thought of Matthew 5:3, which says the "poor in spirit will inherit the Kingdom of Heaven." This must have been a pretty special person.

Now, as I wonder about this soul, I wonder about myself and my soul.

So much has changed in my life and society in general since my visit to that person's grave. I wonder: Did I ever see this person? Did I show dignity and respect and call this person by name? Did I ever give any needed food, shelter, clothes? Or was I too busy?

Like all cities, ours has many who are poor or homeless. I think specifically of homeless women and children. Some of our neighbors live by eating out of dumpsters. Many are sexually abused.

Sometimes I get discouraged and think we can't make a difference. Then I think about the people we serve at St Patrick's Church Outreach Center in the poorest Zip Code in Memphis -- 38126. It is such a blessing to serve our neighbors. We often ask the people we serve with food, clothing and shelter how they are doing. The most frequent answer is, "I am blessed." I often think about how we can help in serving dignity. I try and learn their names.

Truth is, we serve a pretty high-end clientele -- those who will "inherit the Kingdom of Heaven."

Decades after my visit to Potters Field, I have thoughts about my own funeral. I want to leave off the trappings of a prestigious funeral of a former mayor.

I do want the collection basket to be passed around and the money be used to help the poor. I want there to be a funeral mass at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in the poorest ZIP Code in Memphis. Let the meal of mercy be in the outreach center and open the doors to the neighborhood. Let the pastor plan a full meal and line up volunteers.

Serve and they will come.

Some will be wearing clothes, socks and shoes we collected and gave away. If it's cold, their most valued possession, their warm blankets a donor sent money in for, will be on their shoulders. They will feel the dignity as those serving ask, How are you doing? Some will not attend because so many of us worked together to "Drive Their Dream," and we helped design a path for the impoverished to be self-sufficient and they will be at work.

In the meantime, please consider how we can work and walk together now and serve the "poor in spirit." We do have a kinship. As Jesus said in Matthew's gospel: "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

Richard C. 'Dick' Hackett is executive director of Catholic Charities of West Tennessee and former mayor of Memphis.
