Looking Ahead...A Note from Father Val—

Deacon Eugene will celebrate his 70th Birthday on this June 14th. We're going to have a big celebration sometime this summer to gather with Deacon Eugene and Anna, re-joining with him on this major birthday. Also, you remember, last summer when Deacon Eugene retired as Executive Director of the St. Patrick Community Outreach Center, we were not able to have a celebration of gratitude for his many years of service at the Outreach Center because of the pandemic.

This summer, we'll celebrate together his 70th Birthday and his retirement as Executive Director. However, Deacon Eugene is having surgery later this month, so we'll delay the big celebration until later in the summer. Parishioner Sharon Evans will coordinate the festivities. If you'd like to be part of that team, please contact Sharon.

I'll keep you posted.

UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, which includes Bishop Talley and Bishop Emeritus Steib, recently shared the following concerns on the rise in anti-Semitic incidents

May 26, 2021

Bishops Condemn Recent Rise in Anti-Semitic Incidents

With the rise in incidents across the U.S. that have been anti-Semitic in nature, Archbishop José Gomez, Los Angeles and President-USCCB, and Bishop David Talley, Memphis, and Chairman-USCCB's Committee on Ecumenical & Interreligious Affairs, issued a call for prayers and unity in fostering a culture that rejects all forms of hatred. Their full statement follows:

“The recent rise in anti-Semitic attacks across the nation is deeply troubling. We cannot remain silent when we witness our brothers and sisters suffering on account of being Jewish, and we will never tire of our commitment to decry every form of hatred, especially those formed in contempt of faith.

“Any attack on a community or individual on the basis of faith or otherwise is contrary to who we are called to be as the People of God. Pope Francis continually reminds us of our duty to build a culture of encounter by building bridges that transcend differences and divisions (cf. Fratelli Tutti, 215-217). In doing so, we must denounce violence unconditionally and take up dialogue.

“We remain steadfast in the promise of the Second Vatican Council to decry ‘all hatred, persecutions, and manifestations of antisemitism directed against the Jews at any time by anyone’ (Nostra Aetate, 4). This is integral to the irrevocable friendship we have cultivated and continue to build with our Jewish brothers and sisters.

“Our prayers are with those who have been harmed. May all people of good will unite in fostering a culture that rejects all forms of hatred, most especially anti-Semitism.”
