Mary of Magdala Celebration

Saturday, July 24th

9:00 - 1:00

Prayer Service and Potluck Lunch

As we celebrate her July 22nd Feast Day, Mary of Magdala is our primary example of a woman commissioned by Jesus. The early Christian community knew Mary as an important leader, and for her role as the first person to experience the Resurrected Jesus, they called her the “Apostle to the Apostles.” We gather to celebrate Mary and all the women from history, from our own families, from our communities, and from around the world. Strength, courage, and tenacity are necessary for our girls and women to grow and thrive. We see these characteristics alive in the faith of Mary of Magdala and hope you will gather with the St. Patrick's community to celebrate this powerful witness.

For more information, please call 901-308-6381 or email shannon.curtis@stpat.cdom.org.

Lector

The Lector gives voice to the Sacred Scripture, the Word of God. A lector is the person who proclaims the first or second reading at Mass with reverence and a deep respect for God's presence in that Word. Lectors are a principal element of the liturgy.

We want to schedule Lector training. If you would like to become a Lector, or if you want to refresh and enhance your ministry as a current Lector, please contact Bob Greene or Shannon Curtis to express your interest.

Welcome!

Thank you for choosing to worship with us today! If you are passing through town, we wish you a safe and happy visit. If you are interested in joining the St. Patrick community or just looking for more information, please let us know. Feel free to approach a parishioner, call the office at 527-2542, complete a registration form (at the back of the church) or visit us on line on Facebook or at www.stpatsmemphis.org.

PARISH NEWS

Ida B. Wells Celebration Week

Ida Bell Wells-Barnett lived in Memphis, Tennessee for 10 years as an educator, a journalist, an anti-lynching advocate, a champion of civil rights and women's suffrage. She risked her life to oppose oppression, racism, and violence in America. But when she lived in Memphis, her life was threatened and her office on Beale Street was destroyed and she was run out of town. She is honored for her heroic stand on injustice and inspired change and challenged American societal ailments.

For over 20 years, St. Patrick has led the "Stations of the Cross Through the Neighborhood" annually on Good Friday. The 12th Station is the Ida B Wells historical marker (dedicated in 1987) on Beale Street where her Free Speech and Headlight office was located. The 13th Station is the historic Beale Street Baptist Church, which Ida B Wells attended.

Now we dedicate a memorial to her heroism, and to inspire those who continue her legacy. Come join the Memphis community in honoring and celebrating this amazing African American woman at the Ida B Wells Plaza at Beale and 4th Streets.

Please visit www.idabwellsmemphis.org to see the complete schedule of events during the

Ida B Wells Celebration Week
July 11-16, 2021.
