Interested in the Flower Ministry?

Flowers on the altar are more than mere ornaments. They remind us of God's creation and the beauty of His handiwork. They are the expression of our love for God as well as a means of glorifying His name in all the earth.

If you would like to join this joyful ministry, please contact Donna McLellan at 901-210-8321 or d.ellis@mac.com.

A Note from the Pastor

DID YOU KNOW THAT ...

St. Augustine says: "The one who sings prays twice." If you love to sing, then you are for a treat. The parish needs YOU to share your talent.

The 11:00am Mass choir needs more folks to sing. Please consider joining.

The 8:30am Mass has never had a choir before. However, we can make it happen even if for once or twice a month. We only need 4 or 5 or more folks to sing.

If you feel you are called to sing, please see Angelica, our Music Director, after the Mass.

Please join the choir!

PARISH NEWS

Say Their Names

The Say Their Names prayer group meets weekly by Zoom to say the names of and pray for people who have died at the hands of police and vigilante violence.

In the St. Patrick Church bulletin, we have been highlighting the stories of a few of the many men and women who lost their God given lives because of racial hatred.

It is our prayer that by sharing their stories, we have touched your heart.

Now we feel it is time to reflect on what we have read.

As we pause to ponder and discern, please consider the following questions:

- ☐ Where do we go from here?
- ☐ Have I been moved to take action?
- ☐ What is my role in healing racial injustice?

If your prayerful reflection leads you to further involvement, please contact Linda Opiel at lindaopiel@comcast.net (Say Their Names), or Randy Gamble at gambleheal@yahoo.com (Lynching Sites Project). You can also visit the Lynching Sites Project website at lynchingsitesmem.org.

PARISH NEWS

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Wednesday, September 27 is the Feast of St. Vincent de Paul. Next Sunday, September 24 at all Masses, the second collection will be for the benefit of the St. Patrick Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

The Society works with the poor to provide immediate expenses such as relief for rent and utilities while providing a path for clients to achieve more self-sufficiency. As you can readily understand, these needs have been greatly increased due rapidly rising energy and housing costs.

The poor are not people “outside” our communities, but brothers and sisters whose sufferings we should share, in an effort to alleviate their difficulties and marginalization, restore their lost dignity and ensure their necessary social inclusion.”

Our conference at St. Patrick Church seeks out the poor and marginalized in our 38126 neighborhood, because this is how we experience our call to meet Christ. We establish direct, personal relationships with those in need and attend to their particular situations. This is how we are able to “catch” some of those who fall through the cracks of larger institutions:

- ♦ like the senior facing extra expenses incurred by caring for her sister while her sister recovered from surgery--her hardship didn't fall into any of the categories stipulated by other aid agencies
- ♦ like the woman facing a utility cut-off who could not access utility help offered to seniors because she was weeks shy of her 65th birthday
- ♦ like the disabled single father of two teenagers who could not get help with extra expenses during Covid 19 because he had not experienced a loss of income directly from the pandemic.

Often the greatest benefit to neighbors like these is not the financial assistance we provide, but the hope engendered by the human warmth of personal contact and support—of “stretching out our hands.”

The St. Patrick conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul invites you to participate in the work of stretching out hands of help and hope to our 38126 neighbors. Please be generous with the second collection next Sunday. If you wish to contribute by check, it should be made out to “Society of St. Vincent de Paul St. Patrick Conference.”

And as always, thank you for sharing in this good work, St. Patrick Church!

Please follow us on social media!
