A Note from the Pastor

DID YOU KNOW THAT ...

Church Activities

Last Sunday we did several things that make St. Patrick an awesome parish. We did a Kick-off for our Youth Group after the 11:00 am Mass. We had several teenagers participated in our Kick-off. We commissioned and offered a blessing for our Catechists for our Sunday Religious Education that also started last Sunday. So, parents, let your children experience the beauty and wonder of our God through the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. We also commissioned and offered a blessing for our new five altar servers who participated in our training the past Saturday. Also, our RCIA is about to begin on October 1st from 9:45- 10:45am. If you know anyone who is interested about our Catholic faith, please invite that person. If you want to know more about your Catholic faith, you are also very welcome to join us.

Things are going well here at our parish. I am glad to be part of this family.

-Fr. Dexter

Embers of Hope

As the summer's heat fades into memory, our thoughts turn to updating our winter wardrobe. Instead of discarding last year's gently worn coats, hats, scarves and gloves, set them aside for distribution to our neighbors. We will collect donations in November, including blankets, sleeping bags and pass them on as "embers of hope" as a sign of God's love and care for them.

Specific collection and distribution dates will follow.

If you would like to make a monetary contribution just note "Embers of Hope" on your check or envelope and place in the collection basket.

From the publisher:

"At the age of twelve, Sophie Caco is sent from her impoverished Haitian village to New York to be reunited with a mother she barely remembers. There she discovers secrets that no child should ever know, and a legacy of shame that can be healed only when she returns to Haiti—to the women who first reared her. [Breath, Eyes, Memory] is a passionate journey through a landscape charged with the supernatural and scarred by political violence. ...Danticat evokes the wonder, terror, and heartache of her native Haiti—and the enduring strength of Haiti's women—with vibrant imagery and narrative grace that bear witness to her people's suffering and courage."

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Wednesday, September 27 is the Feast of St. Vincent de Paul.

The second collection today is for the benefit of the ### St. Patrick Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

The Society works with the poor to provide immediate expenses such as relief for rent and utilities while providing a path for clients to achieve more self-sufficiency. As you can readily understand, these needs have been greatly increased due rapidly rising energy and housing costs.

The poor are not people “outside” our communities, but brothers and sisters whose sufferings we should share, in an effort to alleviate their difficulties and marginalization, restore their lost dignity and ensure their necessary social inclusion.”

Our conference at St. Patrick Church seeks out the poor and marginalized in our 38126 neighborhood, because this is how we experience our call to meet Christ. We establish direct, personal relationships with those in need and attend to their particular situations. This is how we are able to “catch” some of those who fall through the cracks of larger institutions:

- ♦ like the senior facing extra expenses incurred by caring for her sister while her sister recovered from surgery--her hardship didn't fall into any of the categories stipulated by other aid agencies
- ♦ like the woman facing a utility cut-off who could not access utility help offered to seniors because she was weeks shy of her 65th birthday
- ♦ like the disabled single father of two teenagers who could not get help with extra expenses during Covid 19 because he had not experienced a loss of income directly from the pandemic.

Often the greatest benefit to neighbors like these is not the financial assistance we provide, but the hope engendered by the human warmth of personal contact and support—of “stretching out our hands.”

The St. Patrick conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul invites you to participate in the work of stretching out hands of help and hope to our 38126 neighbors. Please be generous with the second collection next Sunday. If you wish to contribute by check, it should be made out to “Society of St. Vincent de Paul St. Patrick Conference.”

And as always, thank you for sharing in this good work,
St. Patrick Church!

You can sign up for a one-time contribution or for automatic contributions to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul
