MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of St. Patrick Catholic Community is to proclaim and live the Gospel message of unconditional love, healing, and reconciliation, through prayer, celebration, and action on behalf of justice, as a sign of hope for all God's people.

PARISH NEWS

Welcome to Saint Patrick Parish, a Roman Catholic community that gathers day by day, week by week, to be the hands and feet of Jesus Christ. Our close-knit and diverse parish family has been serving our neighborhood since 1866. Young, old, poor, rich, various ethnic origins and differing backgrounds gather to proclaim and live the Gospel message of unconditional love, healing, and reconciliation through prayer, celebration, and action on behalf of justice as a sign of hope for all God's people. From our lively music to our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd formation program; from our commitment to liturgy being truly "the work of the people" to plentiful social outreach opportunities through our St. Patrick-Champion Outreach Center, St. Pat's continues to be a vibrant community of faith that is centered in prayer and action that extends far beyond the walls of our buildings.

Saint Patrick is the third oldest parish in Memphis following St. Mary in The Pinch and St. Peter downtown. Our community was founded to serve the growing number of working-class Irish families in the south Memphis neighborhoods.

Despite sickness and tragedy of the Yellow Fever Epidemics in Memphis, the community continued to grow. In 1904, construction on a new Romanesque church building began. The parish served as a "mother church" to two new parishes, St. Thomas in Soulsville and Immaculate Conception in Central Gardens during this time. To honor our Irish heritage, the co-patrons of Ireland, Saint Patrick and Saint Brigid are featured on either side of the Holy Family in the apse above the Sanctuary. Our pipe organ is the oldest working pipe organ in Memphis. Completed and dedicated in 1905 by the Bishop of Nashville, Right Reverend Thomas S. Byrne, our gathering space stands today as a testament to not only the enduring spirit of our community, but also our charism of accompanying the people of God through the tests of time. The St. Patrick campus resides on the ancestral homeland of the Quapaw Nation.

In 1954, St. Patrick welcomed the Paulist Fathers, who served our community until 2013. Our time with the Paulists during the Civil Rights Movement, drastic changes to our neighborhood, and changes within the Catholic Church at large imbued our community with our famous radical welcome, commitment to justice and solidarity, and a call to action to love God and each other. As a result of the missionary spirit of the Paulist Fathers, many of our traditions such as an empowered laity, the Good Friday Neighborhood Stations of the Cross, Noyze in the Hood caroling, the first LGBTQ Catholic ministry in Memphis, and various outreach ministries that still root us in place and faith began.

Inspired by the Holy Spirit and Vatican II, St. Patrick became a full-time gathering space for the community and worship and not just a space for Sunday obligation. Taking note from the global Church and the Acts of the Apostles, we choose to forego kneeling and commit to the active act of standing shoulder-to-shoulder in communion with God and each other during Mass. Except during the solemn seasons of Advent and Lent, we clap during the Great Amen and hold hands during the "Our Father." We believe Mass is a celebration, Mass is a feast, Mass is a chance to share in the glory of God together actively and with joy. Some of our members still kneel and we encourage everyone to do what connects them with God and makes them comfortable.

We heartily welcome all who come through our doors and are committed to accompanying each other on all journeys of faith.

A Baptist Minister and Civil Rights Leader who advocated for non-violent resistance against segregation. The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. stood for equal rights among all.

Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s faith and politics were integrated and focused on how we can live a good life. We must never lose sight that the Church is called to do the same. Let's embody his teachings to help us work for peace every day and create equality for all.

Just a Thank You St Pat

“Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none and whoever has food should do likewise” ... Luke 3:11-13

On multiple occasions your St Patrick – Champion Outreach Center has asked you to help with food baskets, turkey, food for the pantry and the Sunday lunch Meal. We have asked for volunteers, clothing, and winter wear for the Embers of Hope. We are amazed by the generosity of St Patrick Parish, but were reminded by those who have been here for decades “that’s what we do”.

2024 was an incredible year for the Outreach Center:
Over 2400 families visited and received food from the pantry.

Over 3200 people received a hot meal every Sunday for lunch

Hundreds received clothing and warm winter wear.

The foot and medical clinic served hundreds
196 Food Baskets plus a turkey were provided at Christmas and Thanksgiving

Completed our 42nd Mobile Pantry in December serving on average 400 vehicles each event

Because you “shared with the person who had none”, the Outreach center was able to do this without debt.

At our last Mobile Pantry, a volunteer who helped us (not from St Pat) said that St Pat has always been known as helping the poor more than any other church in Memphis.

This time we are not asking for anything- just a heartfelt thank you St Pat.
